Yes, though I would warn it's not an exact replica of the television drama and, perhaps would recommend reading, rather than listening to it. The oldest methods have long-established names; but new methods are constantly being devised and rung, and the Central Council generally allows each to be named by the band which first rings a peal in it. A Special Issue is, like an edited book, a collection of articles on the same theme published together and curated by one or more editors.
