This is a unique Christmas book for all ages that is filled with stars. The Arabic speaking groups from North Africa normally speak national variations of this language, which are not always mutually comprehensible, and are often complemented by a completely different tribal language eg Berber for the Moroccans. But each of these helped the decade redefine where science fiction could go on Jewish Tales of Mystic Joy big screen, whether it was in a grungy grindhouse or a state-of-the-art multiplex.
